About This Game

From the creators of ‘Kitty Powers’ Matchmaker’, ‘Kitty Powers' Love Life’ is a brand new take on the community/relationship sim genre, with a very British twist.

Build and run your very own village for newly matched couples, under the watchful eye of your boss, outrageous drag queen Kitty Powers!

This game picks up where ‘Kitty Powers’ Matchmaker’ left off, with Kitty Powers challenging the player to 'take the helm' of one of her new 'Love Villages’.

Kitty’s Love Villages are her new venture where couples can apply to live and have their relationship nurtured to fruition by a 24 hour therapist... YOU!

Features:
- Choose from literally trillions of unique procedural couples!
- Create the perfect town to nurture their relationships!
- Strategically place locations such as the library, nightclub or shopping mall to influence the villagers' moods!
- Watch in awe as your tenants relationships flourish or flounder!
- Be their 24 hour therapist and coach them through sticky situations!
- Help them propose to level up their relationship, or intervene to avoid break ups!
- Read every tenant's social feed in excruciating, unedited detail!
- Use your powers of deduction to diagnose their problems!

- Advise your tenants on what compromises to make, in order to make their relationship work!
- Earn promotions by levelling up your couples' relationships to fruition!
- Increase your reputation to attract wealthier, but fussier clients!
- Unlock new and exciting tools to increase your relationship-coaching potential!
- Create an avatar and upload it to the Love-O-Tron to appear in your friends games.
- Import couples from Kitty Powers' Matchmaker and continue their love story!

What would you like to talk about?
Let's talk about your problems...
Spending time with friends...
That's all for now...

Enjoyed the first one, the second one? Not so much. Too ambitious of a concept, it obviously fell far short of what the developers hoped to achieve.
